February 3rd, 2025:

This Fed employee (a blogger by night) shares his “INSIDE VIEWS” on DOGE, Project 2025, fake savings, and the REVENGE AGENDA. Also, my experience with how Musk wrecked Twitter.

But first: “Those who finally got themselves off of the TrumpTard Train, and now just don’t care, must figure out how to deal with or ignore those Cultists in our lives, who swing off of our #1 ALL-TIME GREATEST (literally, a record) PUMP-AND-DUMP CRYPTO-CHARLATAN president’s trunk, triumphantly messaging us with every little Victory against Panama or USAID.”

We will get to the Washington, DC stuff, shortly. You will have your fill and then some.

First, I wrote a month ago that the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan was serious about Greenland, and that it would be MUCH easier than Conventional Wisdom expects, as the territory has a secessionist prime minister, and can legally vote to secede, and then it can vote to join the USA, and, barring a Democrat filibuster, the whole process (from secession to accession) can take mere days, as with the Crimea. In fact, the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan’s oldest son traveled to Greenland, very likely to establish contact with the prime minister, to communicate on the secession and its timing.

As I have also written, the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan is an IMBECILE for policy details (he has no interest or memory for facts), and lives in his own InterWebTard bubble, BUT he is as cunning as some old feudal lord, or a mafia don. He is smart enough to grasp that living standards growth is tapped out, and thus, as in the days of old, the only solution (or DISTRACTION, whatever) is “OUTWARD EXPANSION” AS WELL AS CANNIBALIZING OFF OF YOUR NEIGHBORS (in this case, our “allies” the Europeans.)

Again, I wrote all of this a month ago, BEFORE all of the “respectable” people woke up to it.

As for the tariffs... You can see, today, that the Mexico tariffs were just a part of The Show.

Most people don't look at the “Made In” labels—thus, most Americans have no idea how much of their stuff comes from Mexico. Invisalign retainers are all made in Mexico. Laptops are increasingly assembled in Mexico. Most “white goods” (kitchen appliances and washers/dryers) have some Mexican components at a minimum. Not even getting into automobiles.

The All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan was never going to tax all of that (worth roughly $400 billion/year) at 25 percent, indefinitely. He wanted to look tough, with an easy win, a public promise of Mexico “closing the border and stopping the drugs” with its highly-effective, totally non-corrupt security forces.

As for Canada, the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan harassed the country under clearly false pretenses—the fentanyl nonsense and something about charging too much for oil, and we shouldn't be subsidizing them blahblah. More Canadian soldiers on the border won't do anything, when the fentanyl is coming in (on the whole, mostly from Mexico) through the mail, container shipments, and U.S. citizens passing through legal crossings.

Did he not promise to solve the YooKrayne war on DAY ONE??? Now, it might as well be... NEVER. He won't “pull the plug” on the YooKrayne until there is no more socket and no more wall.

Did he not promise, less than ten days ago, to shut down Russia??? Well, he turned around and got Panama to reject some Chinese MOU that, until yesterday, I never even knew existed.

Folks, it's called, “SLEIGHT OF HAND.” Inventing problems and solving them in 24 hours.

It is a daily show. This regime seeks EASY TARGETS—such as Colombia (hardly a major source of illegal aliens), such as foreign aid—for talking points and A PERCEPTION OF MASSIVE MOMENTUM, so that the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan can stand in front of Congress like Octavian Caesar, and declare, “I'm unstoppable, give me this and that.”

Folks, did you know that USAID was NOT a part of the State Department? Until this past weekend, I thought it WAS. That says a lot. Was this a campaign issue? Who cares?

The USAID schtick (IT'S NOT THE CIA, FOLKS, ONLY USAID!!!), is about picking the EASIEST target, figuring there won't be enough sympathy for it in Congress, and that the public won't care because the public never saw that money to begin with (foreign aid, right?)

AND SO, PERHAPS THEY CUT FOUR PERCENT OF USAID'S CONTRACTS (THE REST, TO BE “MUSICAL-CHAired” TO THE STATE DEPARTMENT, SAME AS THE EMPLOYEES) AND SAVE A FEW BILLION DOLLARS, TO PROVIDE TALKING POINTS “COVER” FOR CONGRESSIONAL REPUBLICANS *WHO WILL EXPAND THE BUDGET DEFICIT BY $400-$500 BILLION/YEAR.**

You see how that works? It is sleight of hand. It is A SHOW. It is BRAIN DAMAGE.

All the deportations on military (rather than civilian) flights mean SQUAT, if the VOLUME does not rise much. What they SHOULD do, is publish a daily tracker graph, comparing daily deportations on each day of Brandon, with each day now. It's easy, they have the data.

They don't do it. Why?

Because it's not about the results. It's about THE SHOW.

It's no secret that, like any bully, the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan looks for EASY MARKS, low-hanging fruit. He doesn't tackle the hard stuff—he dances around it. OR he takes forever doing it (as with "The Wall" or the China tariffs, last time), after which his deeds can be more easily negated.

The entire first term was like this. MORONS still get excited over it, as if it didn't happen before.

In my writings since mid-2024, I repeatedly savaged the idiocies of the rightwing-o-sphere (Haitians eating cats, etc.), as I realized that these people were locked into a suicidal circle-jerk with the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan (also with Musk.)

I understood that, with the peasants mostly still just wanting a good "show"... and thus defending and justifying all of his crap... and many going even further and insisting on a Secret Service conspiracy to kill him (which theory he himself never endorsed).....

Well, with that kind of a TardSpace Pillow to fall back on, the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan was never going to get it together.

This alone, cost me one-fifth of my paid subscribers. I even lost my hardworking webmaster over it. It melted his brain. He told me a bunch of times, "You have your head in your ass." Also "You've become a Democrat" and "You've become the MSM."

Folks, people get EMOTIONAL. I don't get emotional.

Those who finally got themselves off of the TrumpTard Train, and now don't care one way or another, must figure out how to deal with or ignore those Cultists in our lives, who still swing off of our #1 ALL-TIME GREATEST PUMP-AND-DUMP CRYPTO-CHARLATAN president's trunk, messaging us triumphantly with every little Victory against Panama or USAID.

My advice? Don't argue with anyone, just block them.

If it's a good friend or a family member, tell them, "Hey, I understand times are emotional, but I'm just not interested in politics right now, so let's circle back to this stuff in two or three years, and please don't make me block you."

Now, as to Washington, DC.....

On Friday, January 31st, 2025, the juiciest news from DC, was that the most senior civil servant at the Department of the Treasury declared his imminent resignation or retirement, as he did not want to cooperate with a Musk-aligned drive for direct Musk-crew access to the Treasury system that manages and prints every U.S. Government check. Every check.

Musk or his friends have put out some rumor that, like the legend about Beria supervising the first Soviet atomic bomb, Musk is sleeping at his alleged office at the Eisenhower Building (home of the National Security Council, the NSC), not coming out because he's just too busy working.

(In fact, it is common for Eisenhower staff to sleep on cots in their offices, and only come home on weekends... But has “Pedo Guy” abandoned his entire business empire to work 18-hour shifts at a computer screen, like some NSC regional desk chief? I DON'T THINK SO!!!)

Until or unless Pedo Guy is spotted at Dulles/Reagan airports or at Old Ebbitt’s Grill, we can assume this to be nonsense. Pedo Guy was said to have visited the White House just after the Inauguration, but has not been recorded or reported anywhere in the DC area since then.

To me, looking at the Executive Order which established an “Office of DOGE” within the Office of Management and Budget (OMB, half a block from Eisenhower), it is clear that, CONTRARY TO ALL REPORTING, we have no evidence that Pedo Guy has a formal, assigned managerial role.....

.....and more to the point, that the lawyers—the “adults in the room”—did not approve any truly distinct and autonomous new office for him or his cronies. That is, the cronies are under Russel Vought at OMB. Yes, Vought has lost his mind and sold his soul for power, but, if/when Pedo Guy becomes a political liability, Vought can reel him in, without even going to Trump.

Of course, we may assume that Pedo Guy is working through his cronies remotely. HOWEVER, this stuff now is all so OPAQUE, we simply don’t know what is coming from Pedo Guy, and what from the Heritage Foundation’s Project 2025 people.

For example, although the comical, “You are worthless, so resign and we’ll pay you to do nothing through September”, Government-wide, “Fork in the road” email echoed Pedo Guy’s similar subject line upon his Twitter takeover, my former webmaster, who is a vetted, trained, Project 2025 appointee standby (he kindly turned down the actual offer, and I don’t think this is a worthy secret anymore), found out about that email months ago from his Project 2025 contacts.

*(FYI, “please resign and we’ll pay you for seven months” has been such a “great success”, that my Department’s temporary acting head—a mid-level-executive bureaucrat, as they can’t find anyone else who wants the job—sent out THREE EMAILS stating that the offer is legit and you can respond, AND, he just gave notice that they will offer voluntary early retirement to all eligibles—that is, you can leave early, in some cases under age 50, and get paid for life, in some cases over $3000 per month, and still collect Social Security later. How’s that for Pedo Guy’s Wall Street Journal manifesto of “We will save money by making people so miserable that they leave”???)

(In fact, what's happening, is that just about the ONLY people who responded with, "Sure, I'll resign if you pay me to do nothing for seven months"... are those WHO WERE ALREADY RETIRING ANYWAY. What these folks are doing, is rescinding their retirements, taking the free money... and then, they will re-apply to retire, before those seven months are out. It's an absolute waste of (AT LEAST) hundreds of millions of dollars, Government-wide, but this is what happens when Big Swinging Dicks come in, thinking they are gods... but they don't know anything. Folks, this "downsizing" drive may COST MORE THAN IT SAVES. But hey, what do I know? I only work here. I'm no expert on Twitter!!!)

What seems clear, is that some persons on Government (Executive Branch) paychecks are very likely taking orders from outside interests, with no filter.

This may violate one or more laws, but regardless, what the Puppet Masters don't realize is that they will eventually be identified and deposed and tied down, in lawsuits over failure to abide by legal and/or contractual obligations, conspiracy to deny rights or due process, and so forth.

You see, although the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan got 49.8 percent of the popular vote, our legal system is still here.

To date, perhaps, no one has any "standing" to sue... because nothing real and "final" has yet been done to anyone. But it's coming.

As to the Treasury's payments system.....

No one at OMB ever had any access to this before. OMB implements various catchy tools (whatever a given Administration got sold on by some consultant) to evaluate Federal program performance. It also sets standards for Government-wide IT and infosec and so forth.

At the same time, the access itself (whatever they might do with it) is not illegal.

No doubt, the New Bolsheviks seek to further the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan's and Pedo Guy's Government-by-Twitter approach, in this case, for example, by evaluating a Social Security Disability check to SHANEEQUA JONES.....

.....(OF COURSE, they will start with a black, or some tranny or pink-haired lezz-boe).....

That is, take it to Twitter like, "Hey Shaneequa, we saw you walking around on your Instagram, but you are getting paid to sit in a wheelchair. Care to explain?"

And then cut her off... and dare her to find a lawyer and sue.

Easy targets, right?

Sure, this is a hypothetical. They MIGHT not drill down to such a low level.

Based on the Twitter buzz communicated to me by a Pedo Guy-cultist friend who seeks to convert me, the TRUE, HOLY GRAIL GOAL is to usher in a Reign of Terror by arbitrarily defunding “handpicked”, Democrat-friendly local authorities, charity groups, contractors, colleges, etc.

To what ultimate, sustainable end? There is none. It seems to be, mostly about the thrill of it.

Whatever they do, it will be ridicule-ous.

Obviously, calling this “Government reform” or “overhauling the Government” is ridicule-ous.

It’s basically an admission that THEY CAN’T GET ANYTHING OUT OF A NARROWLY-REPUBLICAN CONGRESS.

Look, any Reign of Terror is, by definition, not sustainable (not least with a mediocre approval rating and an evenly-split Congress), and will be reversed with an equally-harsh REACTION, or alternately, a total rehabilitation.

Likewise, sending “ruin your evening”, Office of Personnel Management (OPM) nastygrams to try to convince Government workers to quit—with no vision for any particular program/service improvements, nor even any real leverage against the workers—is ridicule-ous.

No one voted for this. The Government works fine, everyone gets their checks and their loans on time.

Furthermore, nationwide, at least 40 percent of the Federal civilian workforce votes Republican, as do (presumably) most of their spouses. Since Inauguration Day, the party has already lost hundreds of thousands of these people. Good luck with the midterms.

The All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan being sold on this nonsense, just goes to show that he’s coming in as clueless as last time.

Like a big dumb ego-baby, he is being “rolled” by a different crowd, for a different purpose, but the outcome to him will be roughly the same... OR WORSE.

Nonetheless, most of us know some idiot (or idiots) who, watching the Twitter show play out, will be climaxing in their underwear.

Oh, the thrill!!!

It is entertainment, it is ultimately virtual. Just as the Democrat Media Machine’s efforts to convince the first Trump administration that it was daily “under siege”, were virtual.

Government-by-Twitter... or, “A frantic, stick-shift rule by a handful of amateur, zealous, 25 year-old Bolsheviks who supposedly locked OMB/OPM personnel out of their work email accounts”... is all VIRTUAL.

Sure, until they get reigned in, they will tear some shit up, here and there... Make an example of a few unfortunates... But it won't change the system... and the majority of intended or potential victims will be merely inconvenienced, or affected only virtually (or restituted later.)

In short, they are projecting superpowers that ARE NOT REAL.

Thus, DO NOT BE CONNED.

They will all be cast aside.

As I wrote in my last prophecy, Pedo Guy will eventually be sidelined, having “achieved” nothing.

How can this ANTICHRIST MIND-CONTROL JOKER save the Government, when in fact, he WRECKED Twitter?

Last year, I paid Twitter $750 to promote one of my tweets. The tweet linked to some free, “sample” content on my paywalled blog.

I got charged for hundreds of thousands of “impressions”, which are mere scroll-throughs, NOT clicks. A total waste. Pedo Guy has done away with the “pay for clicks” model. Yes, much has been written about this scam. But it's an eye-opener to experience it yourself.

Yet, it gets worse.

I did not even receive an invoice. I have NO RECORD from Twitter, of ever having paid them $750. The ONLY record is in my credit card statement.

The credit card shows that Twitter billed me four times, for a total of $750. Again, no billing record from Twitter itself—not in the account, not an email, nothing.

(There is a VERY brief notice in my account messages feed, stating that my promo campaign has started, and then stopped. I have the screenshots. That is all. No record of any payment, nor of any obligations or “what you are paying for”, or anything like that.)

Folks, Twitter does not even have a legit billing department.

As for the platform itself, I don't know what “Elon” did for “Tucker”... But for me, it is lame.

For me, functionality has been more-or-less frozen for years, there are no new features, and what there is, is degrading.

I recently fat-fingered someone's comment, hiding it. I could not un-hide it. A year ago, that functionality was there. Today, it is not.

When I surf Telegram, I see new features all the time. It is flashy, catchy, inspiring. It often feels like I am a kid, exploring a candy store that's just been remodeled, with new stock added.

But Twitter?

Twitter is a dump. It feels like GeoCities circa 2009, or the Drudge Report.

Well, Pedo Guy and Project 2025 may likewise be able to DEGRADE the Government, but that's about all they can do.

When the “food stamps” cards fail to recharge... or we don't have enough masks or enemas for another pandemic, or whatever... Are normal people going to blame the bureaucracy, which worked fine previously?

No, they will blame the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan.

Look, it is a hateful, toxic, self-destructive agenda, creating resistance where there was none.

The All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan came back to DC like the Allies marched down the Champs-Élysées in 1944. For the city of Paris and most of the rest of that country, the war was over. Most of the low-level collaborators got wholly off the hook, and one of them even became president of France, 40-some years later... and he was not controversial.

Folks, in principle, I'm not against “revenge.” But the best payback is SUCCESS.

Today, we can see that the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan is the same bullshitter and political shell-game runner as the last time.....

.....which was NOT a success.

P.S. Some more on USAID. Besides its humanitarian functions (which serve to make other countries more dependent on the USA), USAID is the engine for cultivating and “buying” foreign media upstarts, activists, and other “intelligentsia” elements. A CRITICAL tool of Empire.

Again, they will move it under the Department of State. Again, this is “musical chairs.” And this may, in fact, be legal, as USAID was established by order of President Kennedy, NOT by Congress.

Thus, I suppose, USAID's several governing boards... will no longer exist. Instead, it will be Marco Rubio in charge. But what happens when it's again a DEMOCRAT in charge???

Folks, as I've written on the blog, the problem is not WHO leads the Empire Machine. The problem is that THERE IS an Empire Machine. This will not be resolved by changing rulers. It will be resolved when there is no more Empire Machine. Will that make the world a better place? Probably not. But as my former webmaster might say... GET YOUR HEADS OUT OF YOUR ASSES.

P.P.S. UPDATE AS OF FEBRUARY 24TH: Latest news, the All-Time #1 Greatest Pump-and-Dump CryptoCharlatan may sign an Executive Order to “hypothetically” shut down the Education Department, farming out its functions to other agencies. It turns out, for no particular reason, they want to put student loans under Treasury (what???), and other functions elsewhere.

Granted, they can’t actually do this, as by law, the student loan program must be under a Federal agency tasked with the education portfolio. Perhaps, they can farm out a few lesser functions. But, what’s the point?

More to the point, what Government services or benefits do they propose to cut? None. Student loans? Nope. Aid to rural school districts? Nope. OK, well, you can reorganize however you want, perhaps “notionally” (not really) saving three percent on cutting some management and consolidating IT systems and so forth, but THE OTHER 97 PERCENT are not going anywhere.

So, again, what’s the point?

As I wrote, the point is TALKING POINTS. They need great “cost savings” successes to provide rhetorical cover for $300 to $400 billion/year of tax cuts, as well as new spending, including tens and tens of billions of dollars for AI giveaways, Pedo Guy’s Mars Mission, and so on.

That their alleged savings won’t even cover ten (or five) percent of their additional deficit hole, DOES NOT MATTER TO THEM, JUST AS IT DOES NOT MATTER TO THEIR MORON GROUPIES.

It’s a fake agenda. It is shallow, it is cannibalistic, it is theater. It is where we are.

P.P.P.S. In response to the original published draft of this document, I received the following comment from my biggest fan in the UK:

Prediction 8 is awesome. Have been trying to understand the latest Trump related frenzy. The only way I could make any sense of it was to recall this blog’s previous analysis and think of it as a show for the MAGAverse to create emotional thrill. Whilst not systematically changing anything. I guess it does serve a similar role as the gladiatorial games did in Ancient Rome.

I guess one difference with the Biden era is that a few different oligarchs and politicians might benefit from the money go round. It also feels very in your face, with the often unspoken stuff just out there, as well as creating a lot of fun for the alt media too. All integral to the Show, I guess.

Your comments on the Federal Government remind me of when I was consulting to the English / Welsh NHS twenty years ago. Blair brought in similar (albeit less exalted than Musk and mainly American or even Texan...) hot shots to “sort the whole thing out”. One even had a picture of a gun pointing outwards on his office wall. In a healthcare environment. Firing “useless administrators” was, of course, part of the “plan”. It was a similar cluster. I was working with the (then close to retirement age) senior civil servant technically responsible for purchasing. He played the game, of course, but privately described the hot shots as “flotsam”. “They will be gone and we will still be here”. His team then used internal compliance procedures to frustrate things as necessary. Smart guy. He took his pension a few years later, having kept his job. I am sure that Federal civil servants are just as smart. Many of the hot shots sure made a lot of money though. So did a lot of consultancies. My guess is that will be the case with Trump’s antics too.
